ABOUT IPSA

The Indian Political Science Association (IPSA) is the highest, the oldest and the largest academic and professional body of teachers and scholars of Political Science and Public Administration in India. This is the national association and non-profit registered organization. The aims and intellectual traditions of IPSA are- Advancement of Political Science; Scientific Study of Politics; Dissemination of Knowledge, and Rigorous Political Enquiry.

The Indian Political Science Association was established in December 1938 on the advice and invitation of Bharat Ratna Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya at Varanasi. Pandit Govind Ballabh Pant, the then Premier of United Province (presently Uttar Pradesh), was invited to preside over the inauguration of IPSA. The need to start an association had been felt for a long time and it was in May 1938 that it was actually decided. A circular was issued at the end of August 1938, inviting cooperation of scholars of Political Science for this auspicious journey. The first conference was held on 22-24 December 1938 with the singing of Vande Mataram song. Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya, the Vice Chancellor, welcomed the delegates and spoke briefly of the pressing political issues facing the country. Dr. A.S. Altekar took the delegates to Sarnath for excursion. Dr. P.N. Banerjee of Calcutta was elected as President and Sri Gurumukh Nihal Singh of Banaras was elected as Secretary and Treasurer. Dr. Beni Prasad of Allahabad and Dr. V.S. Ram of Lucknow became Vice Presidents.

In September 1939, the IPSA started publication of a quarterly journal entitled "The Indian Journal of Political Science (IJPS)". In 2009, the IPSA started publication of a bi-annual journal in Hindi entitled "Bhartiya Rajniti Vijnan Shodh Patrika". Prof. Sanjeev Kumar Sharma became the first Editor of the Hindi journal.

In its history of more than 86 years, IPSA has organised Annual Political Science Conferences regularly. Renowned political scientists of the country from all regions and institutions have held positions in IPSA Executive Committee and the Editorial Board. IPSA has held events throughout the country from Lahore (1940) to Trivandrum (1948), from Bombay (1941) to Calcutta (1950), from Waltair (1957) to Ahmedabad (1966). IPSA Conferences have been held more than once at: Mysore (3), Chennai (4), Jaipur (3), Calcutta (3), Meerut (3), Lucknow (2), Hyderabad (3), Jodhpur (2), Agra (2), Aligarh (2), Poona (2), Ujjain (2).

The IPSA invites you to become the member of the association and actively participate in its activities.

OBITUARY

Indian Political Science Association IPSA expresses deepest condolences on the sad demise of Professor Arvind Sharma, former Vice-Chancellor, Mizoram University and a senior member of the IPSA. He was a great organizer and a nice gentleman with unparalleled etiquette blended with amazing intelligence and sobriety. Our homage to the departed soul.

Indian Political Science Association sadly remembers our old associate, Professor Muzaffar Assadi. He was a great scholar, good friend, and a nice human being. IPSA expresses deepest condolences.

IPSA expresses deep condolences on the sad demise of Prof. Kaushal Kishor Mishra, a distinguished scholar of Indian political thought and former Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, Banaras Hindu University. Known for his profound knowledge of Indian traditions, political philosophy, and cultural heritage, Prof. Mishra was a revered academician whose work has significantly shaped contemporary discourse on Indian knowledge systems. His demise is a great loss to the intellectual fraternity. We pray for peace to the departed soul and strength to his family and admirers.

It is with deep sorrow that Indian Political Science Association acknowledges the passing of Prof. Neelima Deshmukh*, former Head of the Department of Public Administration, Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University.
